

Life in progress

PROJECT OF ENSAR, ERSA AND DRAGANA

MENTOR: RONALD PANZA

Who we are

- ▶ Ensar – visual artist, poet, musician and backwards
- ▶ Ersa – musician, bright young student
- ▶ Dragana – lost and found in the world of moving pictures

What we are doing...part 1

- ▶ Ersa and Dragana had a task to record the sounds that resonates to them
- ▶ They also had a task to record couple of videos as well
- ▶ All of us pick up two out of several poems Ensar wrote
- ▶ Ersa needed to translate these poems in Albanian, and Dragana adjusted the language to Serbian pronunciation
- ▶ Ersa and Dragana interpreted the poems and recorded themselves while reciting
- ▶ Ensar made a audio-video file made out of different sounds, videos and recited poems

What we are doing...part 2

- ▶ Playing with various forms
- ▶ Diving deep into ourselves
- ▶ Presenting ourselves to ourselves and others by selecting audio and video excerpts from our lives
- ▶ Combining all of it into one fusion for the sake of:
 - exploring...
 - creating...
 - completeness...
 - finding new meaning...
 - getting to know each other through the language of different art.

We hope you will enjoy the excerpt from our final video!
Thank you for attention!
